Last week we had two visitors to our school.

On Monday and Wednesday, we had the ASB Getwise Money programme presenter and on Thursday Elgregoe the Magician visited with his performance 'You've Got the Power'.

Kōkako students wrote some stories. We are learning to write 2 or more sentences with capital letters and full stops correctly.

Yesterday Captain Cash came to our classroom.....

Otakiri School Country Fair is 1 week away

Country Fair is the school's one big fundraiser of the year and with your help we could be purchasing a new van for the school as early as May.

Garage Sale Items: These can be brought to school any time next week. Please ensure that items are in working order and in reasonable condition -i.e not broken.

Kids clothing - we will accept kids clothing only. Please ensure that clothes are clean and in reasonable condition.

Grocery Raffle: Please remember the grocery items for the raffle. Every item helps - let's fill the trolley.

Raffle Tickets: These were sent home on Monday. Please sell tickets and return books and money next Tuesday 6th March. More tickets available at the office.

The 'Helpers Board' is online through the school app or on the school website. There is a copy displayed on the whiteboard at the front of the school. Please fill in where you can help. Many hands make light work.

Baking: Baking trays will be sent home next week. Please send all baking to school on Friday 9th for pricing.

Wanted: People to make stuffing. Enough for 100 servings.
People to pot up seedlings.
